Know your Tax Deductions

by Tracy Biller – Network Marketing’s #1 Trainer

Dear Network Marketer,

Quite often I receive emails from network marketers asking for advice on “tax deductions”.

Some of the a questions I’m asked are:

- Can I deduct my education/training expenses?
- Can I deduct what I spend on leads?
- Can I deduct my cell phone and landline expenses?
- Can I deduct my computer, printer, fax, office supplies?
- Is my home office space tax deductible?
- Can I deduct the new desk and chair I bought?
- Can I deduct my web site costs?

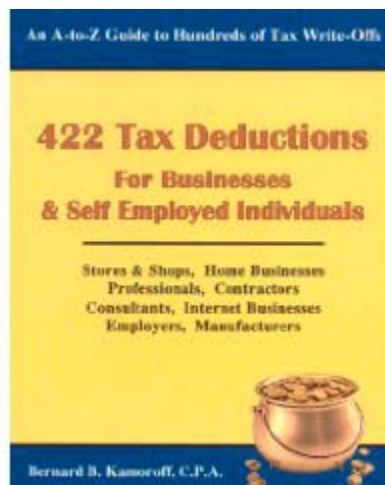

And many more . . .

Although I’m not a CPA, I am quite knowledgeable on what I can (and can’t) deduct on my personal and business tax returns. The reason I know a lot about it is because of a book I’ve been using for many years entitled “422 Tax Deductions For Businesses and Self Employed Individuals.”

The bottom line is that if you don't know what you can deduct, then you're paying too much in taxes.

BUY THIS BOOK AND SAVE MONEY!!!

For years I've been telling network marketers to buy the book "422 Tax Deductions For Businesses and Self Employed Individuals." I bought my first copy of the book well over a decade ago and have used it every year since. (In fact, I've owned three editions of the book, because the author continually updates the book with the latest tax code changes.)

The book is now in its 8th edition (which I purchased at Amazon this morning). And yes, it contains all the latest tax code changes.

You can get it online or perhaps at your local bookstore. The cost for the book at Amazon is only $12.62, and that's tax deductible if you are self employed!

Sincerely,

Tracy Biller
